

The Countdown Public Art Project: 2026 Events Schedule

JUNE

Countdown Creates: Pebble Mosaic Workshop

Saturday, June 13, 2026 | 1:00–4:00 PM

Killaloe Pathways Park, Killaloe, ON (outdoors)

Facilitated by Anna Camilleri, Tristan R. Whiston & Sylvia Tennisco

In this workshop, we create small pebble mosaic “stepping stones” to keep, gift, or contribute to a Countdown monument in a public space.

Countdown Live: Launch Event

Saturday, June 13, 2026 | 4:00–5:30 PM

Killaloe Pathways Park, Killaloe, ON (outdoors)

Featuring Constellations Choir, Lyra Ensemble & the McLean Sisters

Celebrate the launch of Countdown with a community gathering, light refreshments, and an intimate acoustic concert following a pebble mosaic workshop.

JULY

Countdown Creates: Printmaking Workshop

Saturday, July 4, 2026 | 1:00–4:00 PM

Golden Lake, ON (indoors)

Facilitated by Tanya Lyons, Linda Archibald & Heather Wilson

In this monoprinting workshop, we create banners for Countdown Moves and Countdown Live. Monoprinting is a simple printmaking method that creates one-of-a-kind images using layered colour and texture.

Countdown Creates: Printmaking Workshop

Saturday, July 25, 2026 | 1:00–4:00 PM

Golden Lake, ON (indoors)

Facilitated by Tanya Lyons, Linda Archibald & Sylvia Tennisco

In this monoprinting workshop, we create banners for Countdown Moves and Countdown Live. Monoprinting is a simple printmaking method that creates one-of-a-kind images using layered colour and texture.

AUGUST

Countdown Creates: Tie-Dye Workshop

Sunday, August 9, 2026 | 11:00 AM–1:00 PM

Killaloe Craft & Community Fair, Killaloe, ON (outdoors)

Facilitated by Linda Archibald & Heather Wilson

In this tie-dye workshop, we create banners for Countdown Moves and Countdown Live. Tie-dye is a simple fabric dyeing technique: folding, binding, and applying dye to create vibrant patterns.

Countdown Creates: Singing Workshop

Wednesday, August 12, 2026 | 6:00–8:30 PM

Killaloe, ON (indoors)

Facilitated by Emily Adam

In this singing workshop, we will learn and rehearse songs. Participants will have a choice to perform in a community ensemble as part of the Eganville Finale Concert on September 20, 2026.

Countdown Creates: Pebble Mosaic Workshop

Saturday, August 15, 2026 | 1:00–4:00 PM

Eganville, ON (indoors)

Facilitated by Anna Camilleri, Tristan R. Whiston & Sylvia Tennisco

In this workshop, we create small pebble mosaic “stepping stones” to keep, gift, or contribute to a Countdown monument in a public space.

Countdown Creates: Singing Workshop

Wednesday, August 26, 2026 | 6:00–8:30 PM

Killaloe, ON (indoors)

Facilitated by Emily Adam

In this singing workshop, we will learn and rehearse songs. Participants will have a choice to perform in a community ensemble as part of the Eganville Finale Concert on September 20, 2026.

SEPTEMBER

Countdown Creates: Singing Workshop

Wednesday, September 9, 2026 | 6:00–8:30 PM

Killaloe, ON (indoors)

Facilitated by Emily Adam

In this singing workshop, we will learn and rehearse songs. Participants will have a choice to perform in a community ensemble as part of the Eganville Finale Concert on September 20, 2026.

Countdown Creates: Printmaking Workshop

Saturday, September 12, 2026 | 1:00–4:00 PM

Eganville, ON (indoors)

Facilitated by Tanya Lyons, Linda Archibald & Sylvia Tennisco

In this monoprinting workshop, we create banners for Countdown Moves and Countdown Live. Monoprinting is a simple printmaking method that creates one-of-a-kind images using layered colour and texture.

Countdown Creates: Singing Workshop

Wednesday, September 16, 2026 | 6:00–8:30 PM

Killaloe, ON (indoors)

Facilitated by Emily Adam

In this singing workshop, we will learn and rehearse songs. Participants will have a choice to perform in a community ensemble as part of the Eganville Finale Concert on September 20, 2026.

Countdown Moves: Mobile Campaign

Saturday, September 19, 2026 (outdoors)

A moving celebration of art and community action from Killaloe to Eganville—by foot, bike, paddle, or car—advancing Countdown’s work to create safer communities and end gender-based violence. More information coming soon!

Countdown Live: Finale Event

Sunday, September 20, 2026 | 3:00 PM

Centennial Park, Eganville, ON (outdoors)

Featuring RAW Taiko, the Salt Cellars, speaker Erin Lee & other guests

Join us for a community gathering along the Bonnechere River, at the site where the first Countdown pebble mosaic monument was unveiled in 2016.

Registration is required for all Countdown Creates: art-making workshops.

Limited spaces available. Registration forms can be accessed at linktr.ee/CountdownProject.